Lawrence Democrat.

FRIDAY! Dre. 2th 1890

The money market, both fori'en and domestie, continues tight.

The Championship of the World at billiards was won by Schaefer.

THE Courier Journal puts it fersely-"Too much tax in the McKinley bill and too much nigger in the Force bill."

CONGRESSMAN Spriager, of Illinois, is responsible for the statement, that Grover Cleveland it living, will be again nominated they have insisted that the pubtor President in 1892, that no lie sense was then taken on the other name will suit the West, s. bject of tariff reduction, and and hat he will carry four out Congress must accept the vote of lorty-four States.

While we are waiting, by the advice of the McKinley school of politicians, for the new 60 per cent tariff act to prove the great est blessings of modern times-espersariy to the houest toilers of the laud-the information reaches us that eight thousand operatives ats Danbury Conn., are jout of work because they refuse to accept a decrease in wages.

SPEAKER REED has been heard from again. He explains the result of the recent election to a correspondent of the New York t e ballot bos."

ONE hears and reads much of those of an "off year," and that, elected a larger Democratic matherefore, they are not very sig- jority than the present Demolook a little at the figures and the Republicans are unable to see how this is. Figures, of discover that the country has cours can be made to lie, and spoken. They talk about the he atrociously, but they also tell Representatives just elected by some yeny wholesome and sug- the people as if they were usurgestive truths.

the total vote was 4.058,043, States, with an approach to showing a decrease of 349,789, and that 93 per cent. of the vote of 1888 was polled. The difference between the total vote of 18-84 a Presidential year, and 1886 an off year, was 503,148, showing true one; the Republicans re flut the off ; ear vote was only about 90 per cent of the Presi dential vote of 1884. Studying these figures it is evident that the stay at home vote did not when the prople help them acciproduce the revolution by not dentally into power, but when voting, for the stay at home vote the people dislodge them they did not remain at home, it came uncover their hostility to the out and voted, and voted in oppo people and reveal the contempt sition to the Republican candi and animosity they feel for them. dates and their politics.

THE Republican talk about the McKinley law being uncondem ed because not yet tried, and about the election of Nov. 4 being an accident instead of a deliberate and overwhelming expression of public sentiment, is rather an exceptional piece of idiocy. Two years ago the Mills bill was not a law and could not become a law while the Senate was Republican, and yet the Republicans treated their victory in November as a complete and decisive rejection of tariff reform; of 1888 as an instruction from the people. This year, however. the McKinley bill is no barren ideality; it is no party platform like the Mills bill. It is no real thing, complete on the statute book, operative in every cust im house, every manufacturing esthe United States, and the foo!- in Tenn. ish Republicans are pretending that the election of Nov. 4 was not an expression of opinion on the new law; it was the result or local interests and personal quar rels and all sorts or other things. paper in Tenn.
